vice to Mattapoisett as Selectmen, Town Moderator, member of the Water Pollution Abatement Committee, chairman of the 100th anniversary celebration of Mattapoisett and 20 years as Water Commissioner. He announced his retirement from that long service in March. In April, thanks to Winfield Jenney who arranged the affair, sixty-three friends and fellow workers had the opportunity to honor Mr. Barstow at a banquet at Mattapoisett Inn at which time his outstanding contribution to the town was recognized by the presentation of a plaque by the Selectmen, gifts from Water Commissioners and good wishes and gratitude from all. Mr. Barstow's capacity for enjoyment was as familiar as his broad smile and this salute from the town must have warmed his heart.

A Remembrance

ROSCOE E. BARSTOW

A Mattapoisett Senior Club member and friend has departed on that journey to "The Great Beyond".

"Beanie" Barstow, as he shall always be remembered, passed away July 20th. While he lay in "State" at the Wilson Funeral Chapel in New Bedford many went there to pay their last respects including Mattapoisett Town Officials.

"Beanie" passed this way only once, but he did it all while he was here, as a lifelong resident of Mattapoisett. He served the town in many capacities. He had been a Selectmen, town moderator, on the Water Pollution Abatement Committee, worked at the telephone control center at the Police Station and was a commissioner of the Water Department.

At 1:00 P.M. July 24th the funeral service was held at the Wilson Chapel. Earle Wilson of Mattapoisett officiated. He was a former pastor of the Friends Church. The entire Water Department was there in full force.
Mattapoisett's Chief of Police Alfred Faria represented the Police Department along with

He will be missed in many places, especially at the Seniors' meetings. That chair at the west wall, where he usually sat, will still be there, but when I look at it I shall think of "Beanie" who devoted so much to public service, and I shall try to do my share.

A Thank You

We wish to express our sincere thanks to relatives and friends for their sympathy, beautiful floral tributes, sympathy cards, donations to Mattapoisett Congregational Church Restoration Fund and St. Anthony's Church Building Fund.

The Board of Selectmen, Town Treasurer, Town Clerk; our Water Commissioners and employees of the Mattapoisett Water Department for the honor bestowed as pall bearers, and to Commissioner Winfield Jenney for his personal help. Our gratitude and thanks to Rev. Earle D. Wilson for his memorable and excellent service. To Police Chief Alfred Faria and his department for transporting our loved one to Boston as well as escorting the cortege from the townline and a very special thank you to Officer Charles Avilla for driving our loved one to Tufts-New England Medical Center Hospital and his faithfulness and many kindnesses.

GASOLINE TANK OPPOSED

Fourteen people attended a hearing held by Selectmen to sound out the townspeople's attitude to the installation of a gasoline tank and pump to service town vehicles and proposal for a location owned by the town on the west side of Railroad Avenue. All 14 people objected to the Railroad Avenue location because of increased traffic, increased noise from heavy vehicles etc. The Board of Selectmen said that they will review the matter to see if another more suitable location can be found. The Gas Rationing Board will make a survey of locations.

RESIDENTS PETITION

Thirty-seven residents of Mattapoisett Neck have signed a complaint that Buzzards Bay Boats vehicles are allegedly speeding, causing a hazard on Harbor Road, indiscreet disposal of trash, noxious dust and odors, encroachment on private property, fire and safety hazard of kilns' proximity to Harbor Road.

ROGERS PLEDGE TO SELECTMEN

George Rogers, candidate for State Senator, wrote to Robert Silveira in appreciation of the cordial reception and perceptive questioning by the Selectmen when he visited last week. Mr. Rogers said that, if elected, he intends to make himself available at all time to the Board of Selectmen and to the town's residents, on a regular basis, at selected evenings during the year to discuss matters of concern with residents.

BLASDALE ACCEPTS FINANCE POST

R. William Blasdale wrote the Board of Selectmen on July 19 to accept the Selectmen's appointment to a seat on the Finance Committee. He said that he had notified Peter Perkins, chairman of the Planning Board, of his resignation effective July 19th. He said that the choice was difficult as both groups perform a vital service to the town and that his choice of the Finance Committee post rested on the fact that his business background could be utilized there to the best advantage for the town.

The Planning Board, having been notified, has a month to reply after which reply the Selectmen and Planning Board will allow a week to elapse before an election where they will jointly elect a member to complete the unexpired term.

COUNSEL ADVICE ON LIBRARY

In answer to a request for advice from Richard Waterhouse, Leonard Perry has advised that funds for library alterations apportioned out of Federal Revenue Sharing Funds override local law in that the money must be actually used within a period of two years from the date of receipt by the town.

Mr. Waterhouse had inquired about whether or not a time limit existed on the spending of the money appropriated under Article 27 of the last Annual Town Meeting.

Town Counsel Leonard Perry has advised Selectmen that ownership of the Mattapoisetts rescue truck, which was originally donated to the rescue team, remains in the name of the rescue team which has the right to dispose of it as they see fit.

The town pays cost of registration and insurance and Selectmen wanted to be sure as to the title before the rescue team acquire a new vehicle and disposed of the present one.

STOP SIGNS WANTED

Selectmen have been petitioned by 21 people who are alarmed over the speeding

PAINT INSPECTED

Following a complaint by a tenant, a state inspector took samples of the paint on Housing Authority walls to determine if any lead paint is present. Test results will be sent at a later date.

BUS QUERY

The town has sent an inquiry to Benjamin Baker, New Bedford City Planner, to see if it would be possible to continue the present bus service to Mattapoissett after October.
Then, the Southeastern Transportation Authority will take over the bus lines from the Union Street Railway. The Union Street Railway asked the town for a $17,000 guarantee for 6 months' operation at the time when they requested a subsidy. The town turned that proposal down.

FRESH HANDCUT DONUTS

To The People of Mattapoissett:

Primary Day, September 10th, is a most important day for the Town of Mattapoissett. We will have the opportunity to determine who will represent us in the newly formed Bristol-Plymouth District. This new district is heavily Democratic and, in all probability, the Democratic candidate who wins on September 10th will be elected on November 5th.

It is in the best interest of the town to select and support the better qualified candidate who will provide the town with effective representation and personal attention.

The man best qualified by education and experience and who has demonstrated his ability to work with and gain the support of area legislators is George Rogers.

We need a State Senator to be available, to be sensitive to the needs of the town and to provide effective personal service. George Rogers is that man and I urge you to support him on September 10th.

A vote for Rogers will be a vote for Mattapoissett in the State Senate now and in the future.

NATIONAL BANK OF FAIRHAVEN

75 HUTTLESTON AVE., FAIRHAVEN, MASS., TELEPHONE 999-5681

Some of the world's great banks are unbranched.

Like ours.

Not that we have anything against branches. It's just that most people like us right where we are. And they keep telling us so.

Instead of building branches, we've been building on. Putting it all together in one place. Right here on Route 6 where we're so easy to reach from practically everywhere. And the parking's easy.

Why don't you discover for yourself one of the world's great banks. What a real convenience our unbranched banking is. Either with Big Doc, our 24-hour teller out front. Or at our early-bird, triple-lane drive up window. Or in our main bank during regular hours.

Lots of banking options are yours when you bank with us. We're waiting for you. We want you to discover one of the world's great banks.

Comedy Continues

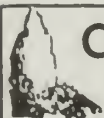

"FALLEN ANGELS"

Sally Jones and Posy Dyer are very engaging "Fallen Angels" in the title roles of that play by Noel Coward. The play, directed by Richard Helfand, for the benefit of the Congregational Church Restoration Fund, is a most amusing comedy which is great fun for audience and players alike. The drawing room comedy is timeless in that the situation is the battle of the sexes. Sally Jones as Jane Bane Banbury proves a deft comedian as she progresses into relaxed inebriation as she awaits a lover from her adventurous past. Posy Dyer, as her hostess, awaiting the same French Don Juan, deftly engages Sally in some great suspense building as the play builds precariously to the inevitable clash between husbands and French boudoiriere. Vincent Worden is exactly right as the staunch British gentleman of means. His diction and projection are great as the perplexed husband torn between the unbelievable and the unthinkable and hesitant to proceed in either direction. His byplay with daughter Mary Kate Worden as "Saunders" is very funny. "Saunders", the new family maid, is experienced in all things and able to deliver expertise on cue. As an intriguing tantalizer the playwright hints throughout the play that Saunders has also experienced the charm of the Gaulic Casanova. Scott Atkinson plays the fifth point of the quintet as the properly confounded husband, Willy Banbury.

The passionate build-up throughout the play climaxes in the appearance of Maurice Duclos, lover extraordinary, played by Donald Finley. To reveal any hint of this performance would be to blunt the whole climax. In review we will say only that "Fallen Angels" is extremely well directed, staged and cast. The appeal is universal to those who enjoy a good laugh. The performance

Interview : W. Hubbard

LIVING HISTORY STUDENTS INTERVIEW SELECTMAN HUBBARD

Selectman William F. Hubbard was interviewed by the Social Studies team of the Living History program on July 17, 1974. Students conducting the interview included: Charles Lawrence, Jane Duff, James Shepley, Chris Brown and Barbara Silveria of Mattapoisett; Mike Sylvia, Marcia Westergard and Linda Westergard of Marion; and Gene Towsley of Rochester.

A life-long resident of Mattapoisett, Mr. Hubbard served on the Sports and Athletic Committee, the Zoning Committee, and the Building Committee before seeking the office of Selectman. Mr. Hubbard acknowledges his familiarity with the town and its government as his most significant qualifications for the office of Selectman.

We asked Mr. Hubbard's opinion on a number of key issues. He supports the state court's decision declaring the "Beach Access" bill unconstitutional. Mr. Hubbard also advocates town sewage and the extension of town water throughout the entire town. He regrets the controversy and bitterness which has resulted among town residents over these two issues.

Questioned about the town's youth and educational system, Mr. Hubbard favors the addition to the Old Hammondtown School and strongly supports the Old Colony Vocational High School. He also advocates the establishment of more sources of recreation for the town's youth and commends the newly organized Youth Committee for its work in this area. Mr. Hubbard feels that keeping the town's young people busy will also serve as a preventive measure against such vandalism as the Ned's Point incident.

Concerning the possibility of lowering or stabilizing the tax rate, Mr. Hubbard doubts that the current tax rate can be lowered. However, cautious spending can stem further escalation. He does not believe that bringing in business from 195 is the solution to the tax problem, but does welcome the introduction of more "clean business" such as the Caterpillar plant. Such industry absorbs much of the town's tax burden without imposing any added responsibility on the town.

While the office of Selectman is a demanding one, entailing three, four, and sometimes five meetings a week, Mr. Hubbard thoroughly enjoys his position and plans to run for re-election when his term of office expires.

The original Mattapoisett Bag, designed and made by Gladys Sherman, won Best of Show in the Mattapoisett Arts and Crafts Festival July 1971. Since that summer many people have designed and made these bags using the same materials (pine needles, raffia and ivory) under the supervision of Mrs. Sherman. On Wednesday afternoon of that week, August 14, Mrs. Sherman will be on hand at the library to answer your questions. Come and view this unique craft.

Summer library hours: Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 2 to 8; Saturday, 1 to 5.

Nursing Home News

Last Saturday, July 20, the residents of the Mattapoisett Nursing Home ate their fill at a cook-out on the porch. With the help of the deputy shellfish constable, who manned the grills, and several staff from the home, the residents enjoyed a festive and happy atmosphere. All are eagerly looking forward to repeat performances of this delightful occasion on July 27, and two Saturdays in August. Anyone interested in helping out and sharing in the fun please call Mrs. Turcotte-Shamski at the home. Also, a nice addition to the bar-b-ques would be live music. Therefore, anyone who would like to play and/or sing to a very appreciative group let us know. Again this past Tuesday, several residents enjoyed an evening under the stars at the band concert. Thanks are in order for Marion Hanford and Florence Bennett for their invaluable help. A special thanks goes to the Mattapoisett Police for their assistance during the concerts. Sidewalk Arts & Crafts

JOY BIDDLE SUPPORTER OF MARION SIDEWALK SHOW

Joy Biddle of Ipswich is one of many fine professional painters who will be represented in the Marion Art Center's Annual Sidewalk Show August 15, 16 and 17. Her landscapes and seascapes won awards in many area art shows. Her acrylic paintings are recognized as being exceptionally fine.

In addition to well-known professional artists, amateurs will be represented in the sidewalk show also. Anyone may enter 2 large paintings or 4 small (under 16 inches) for $1. Craft items and sculpture are welcome also on August 12 and 13.

Mary Ross is chairman of the popular summer show and Nancy Vappi is co-chairman in charge of crafts.

Judges for ten Awards of Merit will be George Mellor, Sandra Bilodeau and Albert Bigelow.

Proceeds from the sale will go to the Marion Art Center Student Aid-Scholarship Fund. This event is also made possible with support from the Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Humanities.

DEPLORES SPOILING OF EEL POND BY TRASH

I am expressing the sentiments of a group of residents in homes close to one of the loveliest spots in our town. I refer to the Eel Pond and the embankment walk from Depot Street to Goodspeed Island.

For many years we have enjoyed this beautiful place, but of late it is becoming a common dumping ground for many people -- most of them from other towns. They come with all the equipment for crabbing, and on weekends one may count as many as thirty persons -- here all day -- eating lunches, throwing papers, cans, plastic cups, etc. all over the place. They mainly ignore the large trash can provided by the town. Needless to state, there are no toilet or first aid facilities. We people who used to love to take a walk down the path, shudder to think of what we may find.

Could the town place signs to warn of a fine for littering? Is it possible that the road could be patrolled occasionally to check on these visitors and their catches of "Crabs" or whatever else they may be taking? Perhaps the sight of an officer would be warning enough to alleviate the situation.

I am very sincere in saying that something must be done to preserve this "little bit of Heaven" right here at home. I hope it will be done soon.

WIN AT ANY COST?

Once again the Little League season comes to a close with the selection of the "All-Star" players and, once again, as in the past, it has the stench of foul play.

Apparently, with "Mr. Sherman and his boys" in Mattapoisett running the show, we can expect anything but fair play and sportsmanship. How long Marion will be content with this relationship remains to be seen.

Personally, I find the whole thing outrageous and do not intend to condone the unfairness of recent events with silence or indifference. When one Marion coach refuses to take part in the try-outs because they have been handled so badly and another coach is not even informed about them until after the try-outs are over, I think it is time to get to the bottom of things.

I do not approve of nepotism, but it definitely has no place in baseball. To have fathers judging their own sons is hardly impartial or objective, nor is it fair to the others. And may I hasten to point out what a disservice they are doing to their sons, for the question will always be present as to whether the boy was picked for his skill or his father's influence.

The so-called "try-outs" that took place on July 13th and 14th lacked any trace of integrity and the whole thing was a farce. The predictability of the outcome made try-outs unnecessary. It was obvious the All-Star team had been determined before the try-outs took place.

The two men present from Marion, one a coach and a judge, and the other the baseball coordinator who should have been concerned with looking out for the interests of this town, raised no objections and instead acted out of self-interest. Again, I must congratulate Mr. Sherman on his clever politics. After all, why should a man make waves if his son is picked?

Another gripe I have with this man is the short notice (three days) that was given to those of us fortunate enough to have received notice! Perhaps Mr. Sherman did not have any plans for that weekend, but maybe other people did. The fact that the Marion Boy Scout troop was to leave for camp on the day of try-outs may even have influenced his decision to hold them that day. What a convenient way to eliminate some Marion boys! Now the date when the boys would be going to camp was known back in April and if the coordinator had been on his toes, he would have been aware of this and opposed the try-outs being held that weekend.

Instead, on Saturday, four boys were told to choose between Scouts and baseball. It seems to me that when parents pay for camp and a child is packed and looking forward to it, to force him to make such a decision is totally unjustified, when with a little consideration that could have been avoided. This has happened before, plus the fact that Marion boys who have been picked for All-Stars were told that if they couldn't make practice each night the week they were at camp, they would be off the team. As I said, this has happened before, and it had better not happen again!

Furthermore, I don't believe that Scouts and baseball should have to compete. They both deserve a place in the community and in a boy's life. The Marion troop has met on Wednesday night for several years and yet each spring baseball games are scheduled for Wednesday night. Again, the boys are forced to choose.

I believe that Mr. Sherman, as well as the other adults involved in this mess, owe us some explanation. So far efforts to contact him by phone have resulted in "the screening" of his calls and his conveniently "not being in". Nor would he attend a meeting of the Marion recreation committee last Tuesday. It seems to me that in the interests of understanding, he should state his position on what is supposed to be a three-town endeavor and not a one-man show.

Sincerely,
Kathy Bucar

ADULT ACTIVITIES AT CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

Children's Museum in Dartmouth is offering several adult activities this summer. Field walks, for which there is no registration or fee, will originate each Saturday morning at 9 A.M. at Museum Outdoors, 100 Old Westport Road in North Dartmouth. The revised schedule of field walks for the rest of the summer is as follows: August 3, Trees & Shrubs; August 10, Wildflowers; August 17, Life in a Log; August 24, Wild Edible Plants; August 31, Life in a Saltmarsh.

A Fresh Water Ecology course for adults will be offered on Friday afternoons in August. In this field course, limited to 15 adults, the life in local fresh water ponds and streams will be compared. The course will be one where the participants are expected to get their feet wet -- collecting and studying aquatic insects, frogs, turtles, salamanders, snakes, aquatic plants, and observing birds and mammals of the water.

Aquatic food chains, nutrient cycles, water temperatures, and eutrophication will be topics of discussion during the course which will meet on 4 consecutive Friday afternoons from 2 to 4 P.M. starting on August 9 and running through August 30. Registration is required and a fee will be charged for the Fresh Water Ecology course.

Please call the Museum at 993-3361 to register for the course or for more information on any of the adult activities.

Volunteers are needed to help the area's shut-ins maintain contact with the outside world.

The New Bedford YWCA's Friendly Visitor program serves the community by bringing "friendship with understanding" to the area's elderly, handicapped and chronically ill shut-ins. Six senior aides are assigned to the Friendly Visitor office.

Office staff members Mrs. Pamela Bedard, Mrs. Lydia Boulay, Mrs. Margaret Dvorak, Miss Anne Leblanc, Mrs. Doris Marlowe, and Mrs. Jeanne Schofield work with their administrative duties as well as with completing their visits and telephone calls to lonely shut-ins. Mrs. Jennie Magnett, Library Service Aide, works in conjunction with the New Bedford Public Library to provide the elderly with reading material. The Friendly Visitor office is located on the basement floor of the YWCA.

The above core staff is made possible by the Department of Labor, through the National Council of Senior Citizens and its local sponsor, the YWCA, with the cooperation of the Division of Employment Security.

This community service program needs volunteers who are willing to give up one or two hours of their week to show a shut-in that someone cares. Volunteers are needed to walk shut-ins who enjoy the outdoors. Drivers are needed to provide transportation and to help the elderly with errands. Drivers and entertainers are necessary to help make the future neighborhood get-togethers possible and worthwhile. Four male volunteers to visit and telephone are needed immediately to provide friendship for male shut-ins.

Fifteen elderly shut-ins are assigned to a regular Friendly Visitor now. More volunteers are needed to help brighten the days of those who are not able to do all that they would like to do. More people should volunteer so that all lonely shut-ins will be able to take advantage of this service.

If you have at least two hours to share each week, you can become a vital part of this community service program. For further information, call the YWCA Friendly Visitor office, 993-5858.

The New Bedford YWCA continues its schedule of trips and tours with a trip for Junior High students on Thursday, August 6th, with a showing of the LaMeri Dance Festival at Barnstable. Tribal Dances of the Philippines will be featured. For further information, call the YWCA, 999-6201.

This exhibit will be a part of the current showing, "Our Hands", which is sponsored by the YWCA's Women's Study Group. This scrapbook will continue to be exhibited throughout the month of August. Mrs. Morey has created a scrapbook on the "Ansel Gibbs", a New Bedford Whaler that sank on October 19, 1872, during a storm off Marble Island which is close to the Arctic Circle. Plans are underway to restore and return this ship for the bi-centennial celebration in 1976.

Mrs. Morey will be on hand on August 15 from 6 to 9 P.M. to discuss her collection of newspaper articles. The public is invited to attend her speech or to come at any time to browse through the collection. The YWCA is open on Mondays through Fridays from 9:00 A.M. to 9:00 P.M.

CONCERT AT SMU

The final concert of the Southeastern Massachusetts University Summer Music Festival will be a free chamber music performance on Friday, August 2, by members of the Youth Institute. Time is 8:00 P.M. in the SMU Auditorium.

The student ensemble will present a program which includes a Mozart clarinet trio; a Beethoven quartet for strings; Reger's Trio for Flute, Viola and Violin; and a Haydn string quartet.

The Youth Institute was founded at SMU this summer for the purpose of providing serious students of ages 15 to 22 with a comprehensive five-week program of instruction in orchestra and chamber music taught by top professionals. Students have come from as far away as Buffalo, New York, to attend the intensive July 1 to August 3 workshops. Their faculty includes such outstanding artists as Louis Moyse, internationally noted flutist; Victor Rosenbaum, Chairman of the Piano Department of the New England Conservatory; Eric Rosenblith, Chairman of the Violin Department at the Conservatory; Joanna Hauser, clarinetist; Susan Randazzo, cellist; and Steven Barta, first clarinetist of the Savannah Symphony Orchestra.

The Youth Institute is but a part of the overall Summer Music Institute at SMU. Founded in 1973 by Dr. Josef Cobert of SMU's College of Fine and Applied Arts, the Music Institute in its second season has exposed 125 students of all ages to the

ROTC Scholarships

ROTC SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The Guidance Department of Old Rochester Regional High School brings to the attention of students who will be seniors in September, 1974, the new procedure of the Air Force ROTC Scholarship program. For the first time, two selection boards will be held. To receive consideration by the early selection board, applications must be completed and returned to the Air Force ROTC Scholarship Division by September 1, 1975. Applications not selected by the first selection board will automatically be reconsidered by the second selection board. Results of the second board will be released no later than April 1, 1975.
